FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CITIZENS INTERESTED IN ARTS HONORS MAYOR SUSAN GOTTLIEB WITH ITS CHAMPION OF ARTS AWARD

November 14, 2013, Aventura, Florida – Citizens Interested in Arts (CIA) announces the Honorable Susan Gottlieb, Mayor of AVENTURA, will be the recipient of this year’s Champion of Arts Award on January 26, 2014, at its annual Grantees on Parade Event to be held at the Aventura Arts and Cultural Center. Grantees on Parade /Champion of the Arts Award is CIA’s annual fundraiser where presentation of grants are awarded to qualified, committed arts related non-profit organizations in the South Florida community, and its Champion of Arts Award is bestowed on a person who has demonstrated a lifelong commitment to the arts.

Mayor Gottlieb serves on the Host Committee for Art Basel, worked to reinvigorate the Jackie Gleason Theater while she was a Miami Beach Commissioner, and has been instrumental in the creation and supervision of the Aventura Arts and Cultural Center (AACC). “Susan’s early and enthusiastic promotion of the AACC has brought many performing and musical art experiences to our community and surrounding ones”, says Dr. Dorothy Koreman, President of CIA.

Citizens Interested in Arts (CIA) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization committed to preserving the visual and performing arts in South Florida, and is organized solely for the purpose of providing grants to qualified members of the South Florida artistic community. CIA has no paid employees. We operate solely by our volunteer membership.
